INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

Anna is a Sr. Executive Associate at Merito Group and has a track record of success placing candidates for roles at various levels from entry-level to director and executive level positions across the United States. As a key account recruiter on multiple national programs, she is well versed in meeting client and candidate needs on a contract, temp-to-hire, direct hire, and retained search basis.

Prior to joining Merito Group, Anna supported the healthcare industry as the recruiting lead for a billion-dollar clinical staffing company. Her background in healthcare also includes speech pathology therapy and youth program support. Born and raised in Germany, Anna is a military spouse with a passion for supporting the military community, persons with disabilities, and is an advocate for diversity and equal employment.
